Dear

I wanted to let you know what I would be learning over the next half term.

	Fiction - traditional tales (Little Red Riding Hood); Non-fiction - instructions (How to Trap a Dragon); Poetry - firework poems.
	We will be reading a variety of texts including Anthony Browne's Hansel and Gretel.
	Place value and mental calculation - learning to read and write numbers to at least 1000 in numerals and in words, then compare and order them. Draw and recognise properties of a 2D shape. Interpret and present data using bar charts and tables. Work on methods for written addition and subtraction.
	Animals including humans (focus on food, diet, skeletons and muscles). Rocks (focus on rock types, fossils and soils)
	Bringing images to life. E-safety focus: seeking consent before taking photos and altering.
	PE will take place on a Tuesday and Thursday. Bootcamp and Multiskills, which help develop agility, co-ordination and balance.

	History - Changes in Britain from the Stone Age to the Iron Age
	Meeting and greeting Classroom language and objects. These will be learned through a mixture of games, songs and conversations.
	Islam, learning about Mohammed (PBUH) and Christianity.
	How to make informed choices and begin to understand the concept of a balanced lifestyle. Learning about people who are responsible for helping children to stay healthy and safe.
	Music Express - environment (focus on composition) and building (focus on beat)
	In art we will be experimenting with different types of pencils to see how different effects can be realised. We will also create portraits looking at accuracy of features and detail in faces.

My targets this half term are:
