Dear

I wanted to let you know what I would be learning over the next half term.

	Poetry - firework poems. Fiction - Stories which raise issues (Lazy Jack); Persuasive text (Café Continental)
	We will be reading a variety of texts including the Iron Man.
	We will be using written methods to subtract. Drawing and identifying the properties of 2D shape. Interpreting and presenting data using bar charts and tables.
	We are learning to classify animals.
	We are programmers - programming an animation using Scratch software. Being aware of online safety when downloading images and viewing animation galleries.
	Our PE takes place on a Tuesday and Thursday. We will be learning about African dance, exploring and creating dance movements; Groovy gymnastics - exploring jumping techniques.
	We are learning about different continents understanding the key physical and human characteristics.

	Topics include "Meeting and greeting" and "Classroom language and objects". These will be learned through a mixture of games, songs and conversations.
	We will be focusing on the role of the angels in the Christmas story.
	We will be learning about people who are responsible for helping children to stay healthy and safe and how to make informed choices and begin to understand the concept of a balanced lifestyle.
	We will be learning how to play Djembe drums, exploring rhythm and beat.
	We will be designing and making landscapes linked to our Geography work.

My targets this half term are:
